

```
size1 = int(input("Enter the size of the first array: ")) print("Enter the elements of the first array:") array1 = list(map(int, input().split()))

size2 = int(input("Enter the size of the second array: ")) print("Enter the elements of the second array:") array2 = list(map(int, input().split()))

disjoint = True

for element1 in array1:
    if element1 in array2:
        disjoint = False
        break
if disjoint:
    print("Disjoint")
else:
    print("Not disjoint. Common elements exist.")
```